

WEEKLY FISHING REPORTS

Water Charleston Side
Channel Lake

FISHING REPORT DATE: 4-30-04

WATER CONDITIONS: 64 degrees

FISH: hybrid stripers ... fair using chicken livers for bait; sizes ranging up to 12 lbs; best fishing reported along the rip-rap and by the aerators

FISH: crappie ... good using minnows and jigs; sizes are small though; best fishing reported by brush and along the downed trees

FISH: bluegill ... fair using nightcrawlers and wax worms; sizes ranging between 5 to 7 inches; best fishing is down about 4 to 5 foot

FISH: saugeye ... fair using jigs; sizes ranging between 14 to 15 inches; best fishing is along the rip-rap

FISH: catfish ... good using cheesebait; sizes are 1 to 5 pounds; best fishing is around the weed beds

FISHING REPORT DATE: 4-23-04

WATER CONDITIONS: 66 degrees

FISH: channel catfish ... fair; catching 1 to 5 pound sizes; using cheese bait and worms; best fishing is around the rip rap and the fallen trees

FISH: crappie ... fair; catching 5 to 8 inch sizes; using minnows and jigs; around rip rap and fallen trees

FISH: bluegill ... good; sizes are ranging between 5 to 6 inches; using wax worms and red worms; best fishing seems to be anywhere

FISH: stripers ... fair; sizes are ranging between 17 to 25 inches; using chicken livers; best fishing is around the rip rap and the bubble line

FISHING REPORT DATE: 4-16-04

WATER CONDITIONS: 60 degrees

FISH: crappie ... fair; using jigs and minnows by both boat and bank fishing in about 7 foot deep water

FISH: bluegill ... fair; using wax worms by both boat and bank fishing around the old weed beds

FISH: catfish ... fair; using worms and cheese bait by boat and bank fishing around whole lake seems to be fair

FISH: hybrid stripers ... starting to catch these with sizes between 3 1/2 pounds to 8 pounds; using chicken livers by both boat and bank fishing

FISHING REPORT DATE: 4/6/04

WATER CONDITIONS: high, 40s

FISH: crappie ... fair; small 5 to 7 inches; using minnows and jigs; best fishing deep waters 5 to 7 feet deep

FISH: stripers ... fair; 7 to 8 pounds

FISH: bluegill ... fair; 5 1/2 inches
